OFFICE OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, WEST BENGAL

NOTIFICATION

Instructions regarding bills payable by the Accountant-General, West Bengal, within the current financial year.

No. TM/1-51/871.—22nd February 1965. — In order to ensure payment before the close of the financial year, all travelling allowances, contingent, grant-in-aid and other bills payable within the year should be presented at the counter of this office by the 16th March 1965. The words "To be paid on or before the 31st March 1965" should be written prominently in red ink on the top of each bill. In respect of charges actually incurred or claims accruing on or after the 16th March, the bills should be presented with the utmost expedition without losing even a single day. It may be mentioned that during the last week of March this office is pre-occupied with the passing of monthly bills, payable on the first working day of April.

Three clear working days are required by this office to complete all processes connected with the pre-audit of a bill. As such, bills marked payable within the 31st March 1965 may be received by this office up to the 26th March 1965.- Only in exceptional cases at the express request of the sanctioning authorities, contingent bills involving large amounts and grant-in-aid bills will be received up to 29th March 1965 with the special permission of the Deputy Accountant-General (TAD) in respect of bills payable from the counter of Treasury Buildings and of the Senior Deputy Accountant-General in respect of bills payable from the counter of the other wing of this office, namely at 4 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-1. In no case will any bill be received on the 30th and 31st March 1965.

On the fourth working day from the date of presentation of a bill the payee or his messenger should call at the delivery counter to demand payment. If for any reason payment cannot be obtained in that day, he should call on the next day, or on the second or third following day, should it become necessary. Any complaint regarding undue delay in payment should be lodged with the gazetted officer-in-charge of the section. No attempt should be made to get into direct touch with the sectional staff.

It should be particularly borne in mind that unpassed bills are not returned by post; they are required to be received back at the counter on surrender of tokens.

All possible care should be taken to see that the bills presented are free from defects and irregularities as there may not be time left for resubmitting the bills when once returned unpassed with audit objection.

It will facilitate the payment of bills if the following instructions are borne in mind:—

(a) If the appropriation for the current year is likely to be or has already been exceeded, an additional appropriation should be obtained in time to meet the excess and the order sanctioning the additional appropriation attached to the bills.

(b) If any charge requiring sanction of a higher authority is claimed in a bill, a true copy of the sanction should be attached to it. As no payment can be made on the authority of copies of orders, the sanctioning authority should be requested to communicate the orders to this office in time.

(c) If no distribution of any appropriation has yet been made formal orders of the competent authority sanctioning the distribution should be attached to the bill.

(d) A bill extract giving particulars of the major, minor and detailed heads of account to which the amount of the bill is chargeable and the designation of the officer controlling the expenditure should invariably be attached to the bills.

Between the 16th and 31st March care should be taken to check the Bill register every day with a view to receive all payments in good time.

As a special concession to payees, the Cash Payment and Cheque Delivery counters of this office will be kept open till 4-30 p.m. on the 31st March. No payment will be made after that hour. Establishment Bill for March, 1965 will be paid by this office by the 1st April 1965 instead of on the 31st March 1965.

In respect of charges actually incurred or claims accruing on or after the 16th March, the bills should be presented with the utmost expedition without losing even a single day. It may be mentioned that during the last week of March this office is preoccupied with the passing of monthly bills, payable on the first working day of April.

Three clear working days are required by this office to complete all processes connected with the pre-audit of a bill. As such, bills marked payable within the 31st March 1965 may be received by this office up to the 26th March 1965. Only in exceptional cases at the express request of the sanctioning authorities, contingent bills involving large amounts and grant-in-aid bills will be received up to 29th March 1965 with the special permission of the Deputy Accountant-General (TAD) in respect of bills payable from the counter of Treasury Buildings and of the Senior Deputy Accountant-General in respect of bills payable from the counter of the other wing of this office, namely at 4 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-1. In no case will any bill be received on the 30th and 31st March 1965.

On the fourth working day from the date of presentation of a bill the payee or his messenger should call at the delivery counter to demand payment. If for any reason payment cannot be obtained in that day, he should call on the next day, or on the second or third following day, should it become necessary. Any complaint regarding undue delay in payment should be lodged with the gazetted officer-in-charge of the section. No attempt should be made to get into direct touch with the sectional staff.

It should be particularly borne in mind that unpassed bills are not returned by post; they are required to be received back at the counter on surrender of tokens.

All possible care should be taken to see that the bills presented are free from defects and irregularities as there may not be time left for resubmitting the bills when once returned unpassed with audit objection.

It will facilitate the payment of bills if the following instructions are borne in mind:—

(a) If the appropriation for the current year is likely to be or has already been exceeded, an additional appropriation should be obtained in time to meet the excess and the order sanctioning the additional appropriation attached to the bills.

(b) If any charge requiring sanction of a higher authority is claimed in a bill, a true copy of the sanction should be attached to it. As no payment can be made on the authority of copies of orders, the sanctioning authority should be requested to communicate the orders to this office in time.

(c) If no distribution of any appropriation has yet been made formal orders of the competent authority sanctioning the distribution should be attached to the bill.

(d) A bill extract giving particulars of the major, minor and detailed heads of account to which the amount of the bill is chargeable and the designation of the officer controlling the expenditure should invariably be attached to the bills.

Between the 16th and 31st March care should be taken to check the Bill register every day with a view to receive all payments in good time.

As a special concession to payees, the Cash Payment and Cheque Delivery counters of this office will be kept open till 4-30 p.m. on the 31st March. No payment will be made after that hour.

Establishment Bill for March, 1965 will be paid by this office by the 1st April 1965 instead of on the 31st March 1965.

Dy. Accountant-General (Admn).

DEPARTMENT OF ANIMAL HUSBANDRY AND VETERINARY SERVICES

Veterinary

NOTIFICATION

No. 2907-Vety.-3rd April 1965.—The following Order is hereby published for general information :—

"Order No. 5216-Vety.—13th August 1964.—Whereas following the results of investigation into the allegation regarding the date of birth and the decision thereon, modifying the date of birth, as appearing in the Service Book of Shri Nani Gopal Mukherjee, a member of Subordinate Veterinary Service, Class I, and officiated as Resident Surgeon, Bengal Veterinary College but lately reverted to his substantive rank, the following charges, as prima facie established thereby, were drawn up against him :—

'That Shri Nani Gopal Mukherjee, a member of the Subordinate Veterinary Service, Class 1, and now officiating in the West Bengal Veterinary Service, and serving under the Administrative control of the State Government, has been guilty of gross misconduct, he is charged as follows :—

Charge No. I.—That with a view to obtain unfair advantage he had fraudulently suppressed his correct date of birth, viz. 1st March 1904, as would appear from the Admission Register of Kandi Raj High School, and made a false declaration about his date of birth, viz. July 1908, when his Service Book was opened soon after he entered Government service on the 4th October 1934. He is, therefore, guilty of gross misconduct.

Charge No. II.—That he had acted in contravention of Rule 4 of West Bengal Government Servants'

(a) an interpolation was made secretly and in a mala fide manner by him, or at his instance, in serial No. 651 of the Graduates' Register of the Bengal Veterinary College for the years 1900-1936, and the original entry under the Heading "age" was erased and "18" was noted therein in different ink. The interpolation is obvious because at the relevant time none below 18 years of age could be admitted in the Bengal Veterinary College.

(b) he had with a mala fide motive submitted a horoscope, in which there was an interpolation in the date of birth as also a discrepancy between the English and Bengali date of birth, and an affidavit sworn by Shri Nrisingha Prsaad Mukherjee, both of which were unreliable documents, with his letter No. 212, dated the 18th May, 1962, addressed to the Director of Veterinary Services, Government of West Bengal.'

AND WHEREAS after proper departmental proceedings the said Shri Nani Gopal Mukherjee was found guilty of all the charges, subject also to the observation in respect of charge No II(a) that the interpolation under the column for age against entry No. 651 in the Register of Graduates of Bengal Veterinary College for the years 1900-1936 is not obvious simply because the Rule for admission of students to the Bengal Veterinary College which was in force in 1921 ran as follows :

> 'Candidates shall be between 18 and 26 years of age. They must not be less than 5 feet 4 inches in height and 30 inches round the chest. Exceptions will be considered by the Principal in the cases of candidates who are under 20 years whom he considers likely to develop to the above standard.'

NOTIFICATIONS

No. 323CDP. 12th January 1965.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India, the Governor is pleased to make the following rules for provision of house-sites for landless agricultural workers under the Village Housing Project Scheme, namely:—

The Rules

1. Introduction: The Village Housing Project Scheme at present covers 54 blocks of the State within the plan provision of 3rd Five Year Plan. This scheme—in operation in 300 villages—had so long been limited to grant of loans to loan-worthy villages under terms and conditions approved by the State Government. A new feature of this Scheme, has been the recent provision of house-hold sites to landless agricultural workers to solve the chronic housing problem of the poorest people and provision of streets and drains in the selected villages. "A Scheme for provision of house-sites for landless agricultural workers" is now introduced in the blocks selected under the Village Housing Projects Scheme congested villages and the villages in which landless agricultural workers form a fairly large part of the population.

2. Execution of the Scheme: The scheme will be executed by the Administrator, Rural Reconstruction, through the Block Development Officers in selected blocks, subject to overall control of the Administrator, Rural Reconstruction.

The houses to be built, should conform to the standard and specification as approved by the Administrator, Rural Reconstruction, as in case of Village Housing Project Scheme. Financial assistance in the shape of grants is limited to Rs. 375.00 per plot, as recommended by the working group of Housing Directorate, Government of West Bengal, including development cost. A developed plot measuring not more than 2½ cottahs (18,00 s. ft.) in area (recommendation of Bhubaneswar Conference, 1961), will be distributed to each landless agricultural worker resident in the villages, while he will be called upon to take loan under the Scheme for construction of the house. As it is not considered desriable to allot house-sites to landless agricultural workers absolutely free of cost, a modest portion of the cost of house-site i.e. 20 per cent. (i.e. Rs. 75.00) is to be recovered from the beneficiaries in 5 (five) equal annual instalments of Rs. 15.00 without any interest.

These amounts thus recovered (to be effected through the Panchayats) may be kept in the Savings Bank Account of the nearest post office in the name of the Anchal Panchayats concerned towards the improvement of sanitation and environmental hygiene of the villages concerned. In exceptional cases of poverty, the Block Development Officer concerned may exempt the beneficiaries from the repayment of 20 per cent of the grant given to them, on grounds of extreme hardship, etc.. The construction of houses may be made out of loans provided in Village Housing Project Scheme to be repaid under usual terms and conditions as laid down therein.

3. Acquisition and development of house-building sites for landless agricultural labourers: The development of the above site should be flexible so as to conform to the general pattern of development of the rest of the village and local requirements.

(i) The modern principles of rural planning shall be followed by the Rural Housing Cell in the preparation of the lay-out plans of the house-sites, otherwise any shortcomings on this account are very difficult to amend at a later stage. Without consulting the Rural Housing Cell, the Block Development Officer should not make any deviation from the proposed lay-out plan or its specifications. The labour required for development of the land acquired, should be available from the beneficiaries themselves on a voluntary basis.

(ii) To start with, distribution of developed plots to the landless agricultural workers —numbering 100 per year in the group of villages—of each selected block—will be made. Land will be procured as free gift (from charitable persons) or as Bhudan land to the maximum extent or by acquisition, as a last resort, where necessary. Selection of land should be normally in a compact area of high level so that this may ultimately be developed into a model village with scope for provision of school, market, community centres and other amenities, as far as possible.

(iii) The Block Development Officer of each selected block will have to find out the number of landless agricultural workers in each selected village of his block under the Scheme. Accordingly, the requirements of land and fund and also how he proposes procurement of land will have to be communicated to the Administrator, Rural Reconstruction. The developed land including provision for house-sites (60 per cent) streets with side-drains (25 per cent.) and open space (15 per cent.) would require approximately 6.88 acres (3,00,000 s. ft.) for rehabilitating 100 families with house-sites.

(iv) Considering the climatic and environmental conditions and hygiene, suitable site for this purpose will be selected.

(v) As already said before, the size of a plot should not be more than 2½ cottas (recommendation of Bhubaneswar Conference, 1961). This plot should be utilised for various purposes, such as for living rooms, cattle-shed, dug-well latrine, granaries, court-yard, kitchen, garden, etc.

(vi) Density—not more than 14 homesteads per acre.

(vii) Roads and side drains—there should be a provision of roads with side-drains at 25 per cent. of the total area of land available for the development. The internal village-roads should be 15 ft. 0 in. to 20 ft. 0 in. wide and the approach lanes should be 8 ft. 0 in. to 10 ft. 0 in. wide. Back lanes should be avoided as far as possible.

(viii) Open space—provision for open space with essential amenities, such as shopping belt, park, community-centre etc. should be made and this will need 15 per cent. of the total area of land available for development. "The provision for open spaces should be neither liberal nor stingy".

(ix) If necessary, the entire land should be adequately raised, so as to be at least two ft. above high flood level.

(x) Side-drain of the roads should be porperly graded and meet some permanent water-channels or course, so that the area may not be water-logged during rains and floods.

4. Selection of candidates: A family will not be entitled to more than one plot. Family for this purpose will mean—husband and wife with their dependants or a widow or widower with his/her dependants, and any unmarried adult member of a divided family with or without dependants. A family of landless agricultural workers may be defined as a family—depending mainly on agricultural labour for its livelihood which does not own any house site in the village. Eligibility of the landless agricultural workers should be decided by the Block Development Officer in consultation with the Gram Panchayat of respective villages—after inviting applications in the prescribed form as per annexure "A" and plots of land should be distributed thereafter to the eligible candidates free of rent in order of priority. Construction of house—out of loan—should start early (within 12 months) thereafter under terms and conditions as contemplated under Village Housing Project Scheme. Land will be distributed to the beneficiaries for building house for themselves and naturally, they will not be permitted to sell or mortgage or lease the land or hire out any portion of the land thus given to them. Violation of this order will be dealt with severely by forfeiture of the plot and otherwise. Only Indian citizens and bona fide refugees of East Pakistan permanently domiciled in the villages shall be entitled to participate in this scheme. Preference should be given to villages selected under the Village Housing Project Scheme, congested villages and the villages in which landless agaricultural workers form a fairly large part of the population. The first claim on this fund will be of villages selected under Village Housing Project Scheme.

5. Funds: Available funds out of grants sanctioned by Government of India for the purpose of the execution of the Scheme, will be redistributed to the Block Development Officers through Administrator, Rural Reconstruction, as necessary—for each block—for acquisition of land and its development.

Total outlay minus establishment cost for Rural Housing Cell will be the total fund available for the Village Housing Project Scheme.

According to Government of India, this total fund available is to be utilised in the following manner:—

(1) 2/6 of total fund (i.e. 33-1/3 per cent.) for house-site for landless agricutlural workers —as grants.

(2) 3/6 of total fund (i.e. 50 per cent.) for house building/improvement of house as loan.

(3) 1/6 of total fund (i.e. 16-2/3 per cent.) for streets and drains as grants subject to a maximum of Rs. 10,000.00 per village.

By order of the Governor,

S. R. DAS, Jt. Secy.

No. 324CDP.—13th January 1965.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India, the Governor is pleased to make the following rules for provision of streets and drains in selected villages under the Village Housing Project Scheme, namely:—

THE RULES

(Provision of Streets & Drains)

General

(i) Attempts to procure land, if necessary, for construction and widening of roads and drains, existing or proposed, should, at the first instance be made by appeal to charitable people in the village and by utilizing Bhoodan or Gramdan land, where available. Acquisition for the purpose shall be thought of as a last resort. While the improved layout for the villages including roads and drains shall be done by Rural Housing Cell, on the basis of Physical Engineering and Socio-Economic Survey reports, the execution and maintenance of the works thereof shall have to be done by the Block Development Officer, in collaboration with the Gram Panchayet, according to usual rules, either by engaging local beneficieries or by contractors, in default. In all such cases, the final completion certificate shall have to be obtained by the Block Development Officers from the Rural Housing Cell. The Government of India have decided to make a maximum grant of Rs. 10,000 (Rupees ten thousand) per village under this Scheme for streets and drains while any excess expenditure beyond Rs. 10,000 shall have to be borne by the beneficiaries in cash or kind. The Block Development Officer should frame up an estimate for necessary streets and drains in every village on the basis of layout plan with the help of Block Overseer and send it to the Administrator, Rural Reconstruction for approval.

(ii) The Layout Plan should provide about 25 per cent. of the total area for streets and drains.

(iii) The necessary earthwork for improvement/construction of village roads shall ordinarily be done through free voluntary labour of the local people.

Part I (Roads)

Types of construction-work (Roads) to be undertaken under the road-programme (for guidance of the Block Overseer)

(a) At present, most of the village roads are narrow, where an ordinary bullock cart cannot pass easily. In many cases, again, there is no approach lane to a house. The main internal road to enable up and down carts to ply without difficulty should be 15 ft. 0 in. to 20 ft. 0 in. in width, and approach lanes should be 8 ft. 0 in. to 10 ft. 0 in. wide. Roads connecting one village to other or to the outside world should be 30 ft. to 40 ft. in width.

The village roads must be of low cost, involving simpler and cheaper construction method with similarly cheaper maintenance. Hence, village roads in general are to be made of earth, suitably treated so as to stable, durable and capable of use in all seasons.

The amount sanctioned for the Scheme, will be utilised towards the cost of any or all the following items of work.

(i) Construction of earthern road—

(a) natural earthern roads.

(b) stabilized earth-roads, approximately 6 in thick.

(ii) Gravel, moorum or Jhama/Stone metal consolidation on brick-soling base according to load and intensity of traffic.

(iii) Construction of "creteway" where the village road is likely to have heavy vehicular traffic and the road is not too long or cost of construction of such a road does not exceed the sonctioned amount.

(iv) Small bridges or culverts.

(v) Part of earthwork where heavy earthwork is involved, e.g., at the approach of bridges, etc.

Specifications for road construction—(i) In the case of earth-road, soil should be properly compacted, given proper gradient and camber. Suitable side-drains for the disposal of storm-water should be constructed and maintained. Sand-clay proportions (usually one part of earth and two parts of sand) of the earth are to be checked. This is essential for the stability and for reducing the shrinkage of the soil. Ruts and pot-holes formed due to movement of traffic, should be filled in periodocally. Dressing of the earthwork and turfing of road-sides are to be properly done, before the monsoon.

(ii) In cosc of gravel consolidation with light rollers, (not exceeding 3 to 5 tons), the required quantity of binder which consists of sand and clay in proper proportions (usually 26 per cent. of sand and 13 per cent. of clay) should be used. During consolidation, proper grade and camber must be maintained. In the case of moorum consolidation, blindage is not usually required but top dressing of sand to the rolled surface is recommended.

(iii) In case of "crete-way" the width of each concrete strip should be 2 ft. to 2 ft. 6 in. and the thickness 4 in. to 6 in. The distance between centre to centre of the longitudinal strips is recom mended to be 5 ft. 6 in., so that motor traffic can also use this road. Both cast-in-situ and precast slab-constructions may be done, while the latter is generally preferred. Proper expansion joints are to be provided between two adjacent longitudinal slabs and moorum filling is to be used on either side of each crete-way with the top of moorum-filling in level with the top of slab.

(iv) Whenever any kutcha road under this scheme is undertaken it should be ensured that the dressing of the earthwork and turfiing of road-sides are properly done, before onset of rains.

Part II (Drains)

Provision of drains—Each village road should have proper side-drains with satisfactory outfall for the disposal of storm water. Depending upon the rainfall and environmental conditions, the size of drain will vary from place to place. Surface drains are also required in villages. For draining extensive open areas but care should be taken for the proper disposal of rain-water at the proper places, without affecting public health. The drains should be properly located, graded and sections and meet eventually some permanent water-channels or water course, so that the area may not be water-logged by rains and floods.

In open areas in villages, usually earth-drains are constructed, as these are moderate in cost. Proper chilchaling and dressing of sides and ramming of the base are essential. It would be advisable to provide pucca bench marks (profiles) at every 200 ft/ 300 ft. distance along an otherwise kutcha surface drain, to help restoration of the drain section.

The most suitable surface drain in villages will be the kutcha-pucca drain. The base of this drain should consist of one layer of bricks placed longitudinally on the prepared and rammed base, properly cement-pointed at joints, while the sides are to be properly dressed only. From the area to be drained, rainfall intensity and general topography of land, the slopes and size of the surface drain are to be determined. The pucca drain is costlier and should be avoided as far as possible, except in congested areas or market-places.

The construction of the drains must be done according to the layout plans prepared by the Rural Housing Cell.

By order of the Governor,

S. R. DAS, Jt. Secy.
